The land being an unoccupied waste the Inamdar applies for either the cost of improving it or a compensation for the loss of crop he has sustained by giving up his holding for the Hospital. He also says the latter amount is Rs. 20, but the Amildar observes that it is excessive and recommends Rs. 12 as a fair recompense. The petiti— has been informed that he must substantiate his claim to t— the Inam Settlement Department.

Order thereon.—No. 5617—Rev. 128, dated 3rd November 1874.

As recommended by the Deputy Commissioner in the statement forming an enclosure to the above letter, the Chief Commissioner sanctions the grant of 9 acres and 34 guntas of Government waste land in exchange for certain inam lands taken up for the construction of the Military Hospital in the Cantonment of Bangalore.

2. The statement in question does not shew the assessment of the lands proposed to be granted in exchange, and in the absence of this information it cannot be ascertained whether land of an equal value has been assigned or not. The principle of granting lands of equivalent extent, which appears to have been adopted in proposing the exchange in question, is open to objection.

3. The money compensation of Rs. 150, recommended to be paid to Mahadeva Bhat for his inam forming item No. 4 in the statement, should not be paid until the validity of the inam is established by the Inam Department.

4. The exchanged lands should be considered subject to the operations of the Inam Department under the same terms as the original inams.
